Moved to resolve, That this House, while willing to support Her Majesty's Government in all necessary measures for defending the possessions of Her Majesty in South Africa, regrets that the ultimatum which was calculated to produce immediate war should have been presented to the Zulu King without authority from the responsible Advisers of the Crown, and that an offensive War should have been commenced without imperative and pressing necessity or adequate preparation; and the House regrets that after the censure passed upon the High Commissioner by Her Majesty's Government in the despatch of the 19th of March 1879, the conduct of affairs in South Africa should be retained in his hands (The Marquess of Lansdowne) Mar 25, 1606; after long debate, on Question? Army Organization—The Brigade Depôt System

Amendt. on Committee of Supply Feb 27, To leave out from "That," and add "in the opinion of this House, the Brigade Depôt system requires amendment, as it is costly, unsatisfactory, and inadequate to the requirements of home and foreign service" (Major O'Beirne) v., [243] 1872; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after short debate, Question put, and agreed to

Army Organization—The Brigade Depôt System

Moved to resolve—"1. That the military system of brigade depôts or sub-districts introduced in the year 1872 has proved a source of expense to this country incommensurate with its general results, and that steps should therefore be taken for their gradual absorption or diminution in number

"2. That the present state of our military organization is a source of immediate anxiety quite irrespective of the extreme youth of the regular forces of the Army occasioned by enlistment for short service; and that in view of the various reports on the subject of the several Committees already appointed by successive Secretaries of State for War, this House hears with concern the intimation that Her Majesty's Government are unprepared with any remedial measures without the preliminary investigation of a further additional Committee" (The Earl of Galloway) May 26, [246] 1205; after short debate, Motion withdrawn

Army—Retirement of Officers

Amendt. on Committee of Supply Mar 3, To leave out from "That," and add "in the opinion of this House, it is desirable that the paragraphs numbered 86, 87, and 88 of Clause 124 of the Army Circular of 1st September 1877, and Clause 92 of the Army Circular of 1st May 1878, should be modified" (Colonel Arbuthnot) v., [244] 16; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after short debate, Amendt. withdrawn

Army — The Artillery — Breech-loading and Muzzle-loading Guns

Amendt. on Committee of Supply Feb 27, To leave out from "That," and add "the great difference which exists between our cannon and those which find favour with Foreign Powers calls for careful investigation, and that it would be unwise to further postpone experiments on such classes of breech-loading guns as are now possessed by other Powers" (Major Nolan) v., [243] 1861; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after short debate, Motion withdrawn

Free Trade and Reciprocity
Moved to resolve, "1. That this House, fully recognizing the benefits which would result to the community if a system of real free-trade were universally adopted, is of opinion that it is expedient in all future commercial negotiations with other countries to advocate a policy of Reciprocity between all intertrading nations; and
2. "That the long continued depressed state of the commercial, manufacturing, and agricultural interests should form the subject of a full Parliamentary inquiry, with the view of ascertaining the causes, the best means of redress, and of counteracting the injurious effects of the excessive tariffs levied by foreign nations against the produce and manufactures of this country" (The Lord Bateman) April 29, [245] 1356; after debate, on Question? resolved in the negative

Intoxicating Liquors (Licences)

244] Moved, "That, inasmuch as the ancient and avowed object of licensing the sale of intoxicating liquor is to supply a supposed public want without detriment to the public welfare, this House is of opinion that a legal power of restraining the issue or renewal of licences should be placed in the hands of the persons most deeply interested and affected—namely, the inhabitants themselves—who are entitled to protection from the injurious consequences of the present system by some efficient measure of local option" (Sir Wilfrid Lawson) Mar 11, 632

Amendt. to leave out from "That," and add "it would be most undesirable and inopportune to change the arrangements now legislatively provided for the regulation of the trade carried on by the Licensed Victuallers of this Country, because any tribunal subject to periodical election by popular canvas and vote might, and in all probability would, lead to repeated instances of turmoil, and thus be detrimental to the peace and quietude of every neighbourhood in England" (Mr. Wheelhouse) v.; after long debate, Question put, "That the words, &c.;" A. 164, N. 252; M. 88 Div. Ireland—Irish Farmers—The "Spencer System"

Amendt. on Committee of Supply June 27, To leave out from "That," and add "as it appears that great benefit has arisen in certain parts of Ireland by the working of the 'Spencer system,' under which small farmers have been encouraged and stimulated to improved cultivation by a distribution of small money prizes for competition, it is therefore expedient that this system should be encouraged by Her Majesty's Government undertaking to provide official inspection in all cases where individuals, or public or corporate bodies, are willing to provide funds for the carrying out of the system of rewards, more especially as the funds now available from the closing of certain model farms will be more than sufficient to enable this to be done" (Colonel King-Harman) v., [247] 906; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after debate, Amendt. withdrawn

Ireland—Irish Land Act, 1870

Amendt. on Committee of Supply May 2, To leave out from "That," and add "in view of the importance of a considerable addition to the number of owners of land in Ireland among the class of persons cultivating its soil, it is expedient that legislation should be adopted, without further delay, for increasing the facilities proposed with this object by the Irish Land Act, 1870, and for securing to the tenants of land offered for sale the opportunity of purchase, consistently with the interests of the owners thereof" (Mr. Shaw Lefevre) v., [245] 1596; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after long debate, Question put, and negatived

Malta (Cost of Police, &c.)
Amendt. on Committee of Supply August 1, To leave out from "That," and add "in the opinion of this House, the cost of maintaining the Police, and of draining, repairing, lighting, cleaning, and watering the streets, &c. in Malta, should be paid out of a rate upon house and other property (upon which, at present, no rates or taxes of any kind whatever are levied), and not, inter alia, out of a tax upon wheat and other grain for food, and upon potatoes and other vegetables, which, as a matter of fact, actually takes more per head from the very poor who live in cellars than it takes per head from those who live in the best houses in the streets and squares; and the House is therefore further of opinion that it is the duty of Her Majesty's Government to take such steps as may be necessary to secure the abolition of the taxes on food in Malta on and from the 1st day of January 1881" (Mr. Plimsoll) v., [248] 1898; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after debate, Question put; A. 120, N. 62; M. 58 (D. Navy and Army Expenditure, 1877-8

Resolved, That this House will, upon Wednesday, resolve itself into a Committee to consider the Savings and Deficiencies upon the Grants for Navy and Army Services in the year ending on the 31st day of March 1878, and the temporary sanction obtained from the Treasury by the Navy and Army Departments to Expenditure not provided for in the Grants for that year

Ordered, That the Appropriation Accounts for the Navy and Army Departments, which were presented upon the 25th day of February last, and upon the 6th day of March last, be referred to the Committee (Sir Henry Selwin-Ibbetson) August 4

Considered in Committee August 6, [249] 364

(1.) Resolved, That it appears by the Navy Appropriation Account, for the year ended 31st March 1878, that the balances unexpended in respect of certain Votes for Navy Services for the said year amounted to the sum of £114,783 4*s.* 11*d.* [The respective Votes are then set out]

(2.) Resolved, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have temporarily authorized the application of the said sum of £114,783 4*s.* 11*d.* to provide in part for the following amounts of expenditure incurred in excess of certain other Votes for Navy Services for the said year [The respective Votes are then set out]

(3.) Resolved, That the said application be sanctioned

(4.) Resolved, That it appears by the Army Appropriation Account, for the year ended the 31st March 1878, that the balances unexpended in respect of certain Votes for

Railways and Tramways
Resolution, Mr. Delahunty April 29, [245] 1426 [House counted out]

Railways (Ireland)
Question, Viscount Lifford; Answer, Lord Henniker Mar 7, [244] 374
Then—Copy of Letter respecting narrow gauge railways in Ireland from the Board of Trade to the Chairman of Committees: Ordered to be laid before the House

Railways (Ireland)—The Letterkenny Railway and the West Donegal Railway Bills
Moved to resolve, That it is desirable before the Letterkenny Railway and the West Donegal Railway Bills be further proceeded with that the Board of Trade should report to Parliament whether the character of the country through or of the traffic for which these lines are to be made renders it necessary or expedient that either or both of them should be constructed on a three feet gauge, with the reasons on which their Report is founded (The Chairman of Committees) Mar 17, [244] 996: after short debate, on Question? Cont. 28, Not-Cont. 36; M. 8
Div. List, Cont. and Not-Cont., 999
Resolved in the negative

Railways (Ireland)
Moved to resolve, That in the opinion of this House it is desirable that facilities should be given for the construction of railways in Ireland on a gauge narrower than five feet three inches in mountainous or thinly populated districts where the construction of railways on the standard gauge would be difficult or unremunerative (The Viscount Lifford) April 24, [245] 966
Previous Question moved (The Earl of Redesdale); after short debate, Motion and original Motion withdrawn
Moved, That in the opinion of this House the construction of railways in Ireland on a gauge narrower than five feet three inches, where the construction of railways on the standard gauge would be difficult or unremunerative, is desirable; on Question? resolved in the affirmative

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. H. B. W. BRAND), Cambridgeshire

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

Supply—Civil Service Estimates—Sir Henry Selwin-Ibbetson having moved to report Progress, but his name being omitted from the printed Votes—attention being called to the omission—Mr. Speaker said, the omission was, he was assured, a pure accident, and he had, therefore, given directions that the sheet of the Votes containing the error should be cancelled, and that the proper entry be made in the Votes, [248] 1531

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Adjourned Debates—Mr. Speaker said, that in the event of no day being fixed for the adjourned debate (on Intoxicating Liquors (Ireland) Bill) it became a dropped Order, [246] 1201
Discharge of Order of the Day—It is unusual to move to discharge an Order without Notice, except upon the Motion of a Member in charge of the Bill, [247] 1403
Precedence of Government Orders on Tuesdays—The Chancellor of the Exchequer having put down for a Tuesday a Bill as an Order of the Day to have precedence over Notices of Motion, and notice being taken, Mr. Speaker said, that the course taken by the Chancellor of the Exchequer was a course not unusually taken, especially with reference to Bills of an urgent character, and which had met with no opposition at their several stages.—Consolidated Fund (No. 2) Bill, [244] 1705

NOTICES OF MOTION

Notice to move "a Resolution"—Mr. J. R. Yorke had given Notice to call attention to the removal of the North Gloucester Militia from Cirencester to Horfield "and to move a Resolution." At the conclusion of the hon. Gentleman's observations Mr. Speaker said, As the hon. Member has not given Notice of the terms of his Resolution he is precluded by the Rules of the House from moving it.—Army—The Auxiliary Forces, [247] 921

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS

Moving the Adjournment of the House—As the House is aware, every Member of the House has the privilege of moving the adjournment of the House at the time of Questions; but I am bound to say that if the privilege of moving the adjournment of the House when a Member is not satisfied with the answer which he receives should become a practice, that privilege will have to be restrained by the House.—Anti-Rent Agitation (Ireland), [247] 697; [244] 911; [248] 762

PUBLIC BILLS

Bills affecting the interests of the Crown—Sir Alexander Gordon having moved for leave to bring in a Bill to make further provisions in regard to the Church of Scotland &c., Mr. M'Laren asked Mr. Speaker if it was competent for a private Member to introduce a Bill which affected the Church of Scotland?—Mr. Speaker said, there was no objection to the introduction of the Bill; but it could not be passed through the subsequent stages if it touched the interests of the Crown without the consent of the Crown being first given, [243] 211

Stages of Bills—Unusual Expedition—On occasions of urgency two stages of a Bill are sometimes taken at the same sitting; but, except in such cases, it is not usual to take two stages of a Bill at the same time.—Racecourses (Metropolis) Bill, [244] 1491, 1492

Moved that the [Parliamentary Elections] Bill be now read the second time—A Resolution moved by way of Amendment.—In reply to an hon. Member, Mr. Speaker said, the carrying of the Amendment would have the effect of setting aside the second reading of the Bill for the moment, but a Motion for its second reading could again, at some future time, be proposed, [244] 1384

Motions not Seconded—Mr. Speaker: As no one has seconded the Motion, it cannot be put.—Russia—State Prosecutions, [245] 1589

Withdrawal of a Question—When a Question has been once put from the Chair it cannot be withdrawn from the judgment of the House, except with the general consent of the House, [247] 841; [245] 859

Nor any portion of a Question, [248] 1365

Rule as to Decided Questions—By the Rules of the House, no Motion which has been submitted and debated and the issue determined can a second time be submitted to the House in the same Session of Parliament. But Mr. Speaker said that although the Motion of the hon. Member for Burnley had given occasion for a very full discussion of the foreign policy of the Government, yet as the Motion did not, in its terms, specifically refer to that policy it was, he thought, open to the hon. Member for Carlisle to challenge the foreign and colonial policy of the Government, the judgment of the House not having been specifically taken on that question, [245] 1502

OPPOSED BUSINESS

The Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule—The half-past Twelve Rule held to apply to a Motion for the nomination of the Select Committee on the Sugar Industries under the circumstances stated, [245] 2056

The Half-past Twelve Rule absolutely precludes a Bill being taken where an Amendment to the Motion stands on the Order Book, notwithstanding that the Member who has given Notice of such Amendment proposes to withdraw it, [246] 226

Order for Third Reading of the Public Health Act Amendment Bill read.—Mr. Dillwyn complained that the Bill was only unopposed because there had been no time to put down Notice of opposition. Mr. Speaker said that the third reading of the Bill had been fixed for that day, and no Notice of Amendment having been given he was bound to rule that the regulation in question did not apply, and that the Bill could be then taken. But it was open to the hon. Member to move the adjournment of the debate.—Indian Marine Mutiny Bill, [247] 284, 286; [244] 1962

AMENDMENTS TO QUESTIONS

Moved, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair"—An Amendment moved; Question, "That the words, &c.," put, and agreed to. Afterwards, Mr. Chamberlain proposed to move a Resolution of which he had given Notice. Mr. Speaker pointed out that the hon. Member could not now move his Resolution as an Amendment, [248] 1872

The Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair" having been agreed to, it is not competent to an hon. Member to move a Resolution thereupon, [243] 1622

Bills—Amendments on Clauses—Mr. Parnell said he had an Amendment to move on Clause 3. Mr. Speaker said he had already put the Question on Clause 4, "That those words be there inserted," and it is impossible, as the hon. Member knew, for the House to go back on former clauses.—Army Discipline and Regulation Bill—Consideration, [248] 720

On Army Discipline and Regulation Bill Considered—Clause 4—Mr. Parnell rose to move the omission of sub-section 7 from the Clause. Mr. Speaker thereupon pointed out to the hon. Member that he could not do so. The House had already dealt with the portion of the section to which the hon. Member referred, so far as to authorize the insertion of the words "in such manner as to show cowardice." The sub-section must, therefore, stand and could not be left out, [248] 761

The House having agreed to the first part of the Resolution down to the word "House," an Amendment to leave out after the word "That," with a view to inserting other words, is out of Order.—East India—Duties on Cotton Goods, [245] 243

Amendment on Amendment—Resolution proposed (Mr. Ritchie); Amendment proposed (Mr. Secretary Cross); Mr. W. E. Forster

suggesting the introduction of certain words into the Amendment, Mr. Speaker said the Original Question must be first put, and in the event of that being negatived the Amendment of the Government would be proposed, and it would then be open to the right hon. Member to propose his Amendment, [245] 908

An hon. Member would not be in Order in moving an Amendment, there being already an Amendment before the House which has not been disposed of, [243] 1356, 962; [249] 740

When Amendment withdrawn, the Original Question will be put from the Chair and the Debate will proceed, [246] 1092

If the Amendment be carried, no other Amendment can be moved except in the form of an addition to those words, [244] 750

Motion and Amendment—An Amendment being before the House, the Original Motion cannot be withdrawn unless the Amendment be first withdrawn.—Consecration of Churchyards Bill, [243] 1822

Money Clauses—An Amendment involving a charge can only be inserted in a Committee of the Whole House.—Summary Jurisdiction Bill, [246] 1099

Mr. O'Donnell giving Notice of his intention to move an Amendment to the Motion of the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the Adjournment of the House for the Holidays, Mr. Speaker pointed out that no Amendment to that Motion could be moved except with reference to the time of the Adjournment, [246] 1266

Amendment—Relevancy of Amendment to Question, [246] 1266

Amendments—Mr. Speaker explains the course he should deem it his duty to pursue when several Amendments are about to be proposed—that is to say, so to put the Question that those Amendments should be open to discussion.—Parliament—Orders of the Day, [243] 1336; [244] 746; [246] 1092

RULES OF DEBATE

Introduction of the name of the Sovereign—Referring to a recent publication Sir Henry James said—"In her Diary Her Majesty refers to a letter which she wrote in February 1852. In that letter she says—" Mr. Sullivan rose to Order, and asked whether it is in order to quote the language of the Sovereign on the floor of this House, in order to weigh down and overawe the arguments of Members? Mr. Speaker said—It is irregular to introduce the name of the Sovereign for the purpose of influencing the judgment of the House; but in this case I understand the hon. and learned Member is merely quoting from a book published with the sanction of Her Majesty, and therefore he is not out of Order, [244] 492

Reference to proceedings of a Committee—Any reference to the proceedings of the Committee yesterday is clearly out of Order.—Army Discipline and Regulation Bill, [247] 1424

Reference to a debate during the present Session of Parliament is out of Order, [243] 911; [246] 1020, 1717

Reference to a Bill not now before the House not in Order, [248] 190, 325

Speaking a second time—Moved that the House do now adjourn (Mr. Gourley). Mr. Parnell addressed the House on that Question. Mr. Gourley proposed to withdraw his Motion. Mr. Parnell rose to address the House. Mr. Speaker: The hon. Gentleman has already exhausted his right to speak. Is it the pleasure of the House that the Motion be withdrawn? [246] 1562; [248] 1366

Right of Reply — Amendments — A Member who has moved an Amendment has no right of reply, [248] 1918

It is usual to accept the Statement of an hon. Member when he declares that he has not used language imputed to him, [245] 1474

Precedence in addressing the House—There is no Rule that gives precedence to a Member who has given Notice of an Amendment. When several hon. Members rise to address the Chair the first who catches the eye of the Speaker is called upon, [246] 264

Production of Official Documents—The practice of the House is that if an official document is quoted by a Minister it shall be laid before the House. At the same time, if the public interest be opposed to that proceeding, that would be accepted by the House as a reason for withholding the document, [243] 910

Newspapers—It is out of Order to read a newspaper comment upon the proceedings of the House, [245] 1673

Every Member speaking to address himself to Mr. Speaker, [246] 286; [247] 700; [248] 812

QUESTIONS

Argumentative Questions—A Question being of a controversial character, involving matter of argument, cannot be put.—Army Discipline and Regulation Bill—Flogging, [248] 26

Questions put to Ministers should be on matters of fact, and not involving matters of argument and debate, [245] 1432

Questions to Private Members—The Rule of the House in regard to putting Questions to hon. Members not being Ministers of the Crown is this—No Question can be put, except such as relates to some Bill or Motion before the House, [244] 1438; [246] 1040; [247] 1549

Chairman of the Metropolitan Board of Works—But it has for some years past been the practice to make an exception in enforcing those rules in the case of Questions addressed to the Chairman of the Metropolitan Board of Works, in consideration of the magnitude of the interests which he represents. Such Questions, however, should be confined to matters of public importance, [243] 955

Questions—Limitation of Explanatory Statement, [245] 1586; [246] 1242

Limitation of Questions—A Question asking for the opinion of the Government goes beyond the limit of a Question, [247] 430; [243] 198

Questions—Limitation of Answer—An Answer which might lead to an argument and which might be controverted would be beyond the limits allowed in replying to a Question, [247] 1550

Limitation of Answer—Questions Answered not to be repeated—The hon. Gentleman having already had a full Answer, it is not competent for him now to renew the Question, [246] 1230

Questions relating to Criminal Proceedings—There is no positive Order on this matter; but Questions are not usually put in this House on matters which are the subject of criminal proceedings, [246] 686

Questions—Alteration of Notice of Questions—Mr. Anderson having complained that a paragraph had been left out from his Notice of Question, "Whether these Counts have been generally arranged, and were brought about by Members being induced to remain away?" Mr. Speaker said, by my direction those words were struck out of the Questions of the hon. Member, on the ground that they were not consistent with the Rules of the House.—Business of the House—Counts-Out, [244] 15; [243] 1515; [245] 1432, 1433

Relevancy of Observations—Exception—The established rule of debate is that the observations of hon. Members should be relevant to the Question put from the Chair. There is one exception to that rule, and that is when a Motion is made that this House do resolve itself into Committee of Supply. Upon that occasion irrelevance of debate is allowed, [243] 1549

Relevancy of Amendments and Observations on Votes in Supply, [243] 1676

Relevancy of Observations, [244] 2021; [245] 1302

Irrelevancy of Observations, [245] 410, 1529; [247] 917, 1208; [248] 764

Premature discussion of a subject—Mr. Speaker said that there being an Order on the Paper for a Motion dealing with the subject (of the Rhodope Commission) which was to be discussed at a later period of the evening, the observations of the hon. Member for Burnley were irregular at that time, [243] 958; [244] 917

Premature discussion of a subject when Notice of Motion given for a subsequent day, [244] 917

Premature discussion of a Bill, [246] 1024; [248] 722

Premature discussion of a clause—Mr. Speaker: The Question before the House is that the Bill shall be considered, and the hon. Member is out of Order in discussing at this stage a clause in the Bill, [244] 1490; [247] 906, 1201

Premature discussion of details of Bill—In the debate upon the second reading of the Bankruptcy Law Amendment Bill Mr. Anderson referred to the trades or manufactures which were included in or omitted from the Schedule of Traders. Mr. Speaker said that the hon. Member's remarks referred to rather minute details, which might be reserved for Committee, [248] 590

Interruption of a Member speaking—All interruptions interfering with the hon. Member in possession of the House are out of Order.—South Africa—The Zulu War, [244] 912, 914; [248] 217

Explanation—It is not in Order for an hon. Member to interrupt a Member addressing the House, for the purpose of interposing an Explanation, [248] 660. But he would, with the indulgence of the House, have an opportunity at the end of the speech, [244] 2007, 1564

Speaking to Order—The Chancellor of the Exchequer rose to a point of Order: thereon Mr. Mitchell Henry rose to Order. After some confusion, Mr. Speaker said, the right hon. Gentleman the Chancellor of the Exchequer is in possession of the House, and these interruptions are altogether disorderly. The right hon. Gentleman has risen, as I understand, to a point of Order, [247] 699

A Member rising to address the House from one of the cross-seats close to the Bar—Mr. Speaker said, if the hon. Member desires to address the House he should present himself within the Bar, [246] 1024

Question being asked on a subsequent day, Mr. Speaker said, I am unable to give any reason for the practice to which I referred the other day; but it has been the practice, so far as I am informed, that Members without the Bar—that is to say, on the other side of the Bar that passes across the House from one side to the other—cannot address the House from the seats referred to, [246] 1363

DIVISIONS

Un-Parliamentary Language—The Officers of this House.—Mr. Callan—I hold it to be a most improper and dishonourable proceeding to allow a clerk of this House, sitting in the place of a Member——Mr. Speaker; I hope the hon. Member does not apply the epithet "dishonourable" to any officer of this House. Afterward Mr. Speaker said—In my judgment the hon. Member for Dundalk is bound to withdraw such words used towards an officer of this House.—Parliament—Privilege—Note-taking in the Members' Side Gallery, [248] 53

Un-Parliamentary Language—Mr. Mundella, referring to an alleged argument of Lord Sandon that as our troops went to barbarous countries it was necessary for the maintenance of discipline to retain the power of inflicting corporal punishment on our soldiers, said—Was there ever such a hypocritical pretence as that?——Mr. Speaker—the expression which the hon. Gentleman has just used is not Parliamentary, [248] 665

Un-Parliamentary Language—An hon. Member imputing treasonable intentions to hon. Members for what they had said in that House would be out of Order; but the hon. Member (Mr. R. E. Plunkett) appeared to be referring to speeches which had been delivered outside that House.—Volunteer Corps (Ireland) Bill, [245] 1929

Un-Parliamentary Language—An hon. Member saying "he must say that he did not believe there was one word of truth in the Chief Secretary's assertion of impartiality." Mr. Speaker said, he trusted the hon. Member did not intend to impute a want of truth to the right hon. Gentleman the Chief Secretary for Ireland, and that he would see the necessity of withdrawing the observation, [243] 1259

Un-Parliamentary Language—Language of Menace—Mr. E. Jenkins—Sir, I beg to tell the House at once that if I have to stand here all night I will say what I mean to say [Order!] Mr. Speaker—The hon. Member is not entitled to use language menacing to the House, [244] 909

Mr. O'Connor Power: Until the highest authority in this House commands me to be silent I shall not be silent until I have made my speech. Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member is not entitled to use language of menace to this House; and, if he will allow me, I must caution him against abusing further the privilege afforded by this House by moving the adjournment of the House; and I trust he will be more measured in his language, [247] 701

Un-Parliamentary Language—Major O'Gorman having compared the conduct of Her Majesty's Government to that of the young nobles of Rome when in their cups, and used other injurious comparisons—Mr. Speaker said—The hon. and gallant Gentleman is not entitled to apply language of that kind to any body of Members in this House; and I must therefore call upon him to withdraw the terms in which he speaks of Her Majesty's Government, [245] 1587

Divisions—The number of the hon. Members who pass them is counted by the Tellers, and they make a report to the House. The numbers having been reported to the House by the Tellers, and not challenged before the report was made, those numbers must be accepted, [245] 919

SELECT COMMITTEES

Power of Exclusion—Every Select Committee is at liberty to exclude strangers if it think proper; but it cannot exclude Members of this House without first obtaining the Order of the House to that effect, [247] 1957

Instructions—The proper time for giving Instructions to the Committee would come more opportunely when the House has disposed of the preliminary points before it.—Privilege—Tower High Level Bridge, [247] 1960

Committees on Hybrid Bills—When a Committee of this character (on a Hybrid Bill) is appointed, it is usual to state how many are to be appointed by the House and how many by the Committee of Selection.—Thames River (Prevention of Floods) Bill, [243] 1971

PETITIONS

When a Petition is referred to the Select Committee on Petitions, it rests with them to determine whether it should be printed, [246] 1723

Irregularity — A Petition having been presented, as to which there were suggestions of irregularity, if the Question, "That the Petition do lie upon the Table" be agreed to, it may be followed by an Instruction to the Committee on Public Petitions, [245] 1429

A Substantive Motion may be accompanied by the presentation of Petitions; but Petitions cannot be presented with a Motion which is an Amendment on Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do leave the Chair." The Mover may, however, refer to the substance of the Petitions in his speech, [244] 405

PRIVILEGE

Privilege—The Clare Election—The Question of the noble Lord raises this point—Whether the consideration of the Report of the Committee with reference to the issue of the Writ for Clare is to be treated as a matter of Privilege or not? Upon the best consideration I can give to the matter, it appears to me it ought to be so treated, and, as such, it will necessarily take the first place on the Orders of the Day.—Clare Writ, [245] 518

Privilege—Note-taking in the Members' Side Gallery—Mr. Speaker explains his motives and action in having authorised Minutes of the proceedings in Committee on the Army Discipline and Regulation Bill of a fuller character than the minutes taken day by day and published in the Votes to be taken by an Officer of this House, [248] 47, 164

[See the full report—also title Parliament—Privilege in this Index]

SUPPLY, AND WAYS AND MEANS

Votes on Account—The Marquess of Hartington having moved to insert, in the First Resolution relating to Business of the House, after "Supply," the words "appointed for the consideration of the ordinary Army, Navy, and Civil Service Estimates," which Motion was agreed to—Mr. Speaker stated his opinion that these words would cover Votes on Account applying to the Army, Navy, and Civil Services, [243] 1380

Amendments on Report—Mr. Speaker: I have already informed the hon. Member for Carlisle that the Amendment [Proposed Monument to Prince Louis Napoleon] could not be moved on the Report of Supply; but, at the same time, the House is aware that general observations are allowed on the Report, [249] 531; [243] 1549, 1676

MISCELLANEOUS

The Indian Financial Statement—It being proposed that the Under Secretary for India should make his Financial Statement on going into Committee on the Indian Loans Bill; — and this being objected to—Mr. Speaker said, the more usual course, no doubt, is for the Indian Budget to be proposed either in Committee or on the Motion that the Speaker leave the Chair. At the same time, I cannot say that the course proposed to be taken by the Government is out of Order, although it is unusual, [246] 130

Customs and Practice of the House—"Making a House"—Mr. Speaker explains the practice in respect of "making a House."—Message by Serjeant at Arms to Members of Committees, [245] 1500

Private Bills—Canvassing of Members—The practice of canvassing Members to support or oppose Private Bills has often been the subject of complaint in this House. In the present case, the Chairman of Ways and Means has brought under the notice of the House the fact that the parties have gone further, and commented, in connection with the proposed constitution of the Committee, on the names of particular Members selected to serve upon it. Such a practice is, undoubtedly, very objectionable, and should be discountenanced by the general reprehension of the House. But, except in cases where false or misleading statements are made, or expressions are used which are injurious to Members, the House will scarcely think it necessary to take any measures against the parties referred to, [244] 933

Sunday (Opening of Museums, &c.)

Moved to resolve, That this House having observed the excellent results that have followed upon the opening of museums, &c. on Sunday afternoons in Dublin, Birmingham, Manchester, Middlesborough, Hampton Court, Kew, &c., is of opinion that it is highly desirable that the prayer of the petition of the Council of the National Sunday League, presented to this House on the 27th of March last, praying "for the opening of the British Museum, the South Kensington and Bethnal Green Museums, and the National Gallery to the people on Sunday afternoons," should be granted, even if only in part and as a tentative measure, in order to provide the working classes of London with an alternative to the public-house on the many inclement Sunday afternoons when places of out-of-doors recreation, such as the public parks, are of no avail for the purposes of health and relaxation (The Lord Thurlow) May 5, [245] 1683; after debate, on Question?
